ROUSING TEMPERANCE MEETING

Held in Moodus, Addressed by W. H. Spear of New Haven.

Moodus, June 5.—The grandest open air gospel temperance meeting ever held in this town, and probably in the county, was held here Sunday afternoon on Fowler's trotting park, the speaker being Temperance Apostle W. H. Spear of your city, who has been laboring so successfully in this part of the state. This was the inauguration of a series of open air gospel meetings it is intended to hold in two weeks during the early summer at this place.

F. H. Fowler having generously donated the use of the park for this purpose yesterday people came in from miles around, and the race track resembled a county fair grounds with horses hitched here and there and bicycles stacked in long lines by the fences. The large grand stand was well filled, and a large chorus choir down in front led the singing with a spirit and vigor that carried enthusiasm with it.

Mr. Spear spoke from the judges' stand. He said he had spoken from many queer rostrums, in all kinds of churches, halls and opera houses, in shops and foundries and even from the top of a pool table in a saloon in his gospel labors, but this was the first time he had ever spoken from a judge's stand on a race track, and he believed this was the first time in the history of the temperance movement in this state at least where a trotting park had been turned into use for a gospel temperance auditorium.

He made a ringing address, full of earnestness and fire, and at its close tables were placed on the track opposite the grand stand and prayer singing went on while the choir sang the live gospel hymns and many donated the blue ribbon.

Mr. Spear preached in the Methodist church Sunday morning from the text "Ye must be born again," and in the evening he led a grand temperance rally at the Methodist church, closing one of the most memorable days of gospel temperance work that Moodus has ever witnessed by the people here with gladness and profit.

Although the thermometer stood 95 degrees in the shade and deterred many from coming, Mr. Spear held his audience from start to finish with the closest attention, his powerful voice reaching every part of the grand stand from the judge's stand, fully fifty feet distant. At the close of the meeting the people seemed loath to leave, and a general song service was held in which all joined while Evangelist Spear successfully urged a continuation of pledge signing.

Two weeks from last Sunday Johnson, the great religious revivalist, is to speak at the park, and from time to time other men of prominence on the platform and used to handling popular audiences will be heard in the work Mr. Spear Sunday so successfully inaugurated here.

HER MAJESTY TRIP.

A Big Crowd Sees the New Steamer St. Louis Depart—Had One Thousand Persons on Board.

New York, June 5.—The new American line steamship St. Louis, with 1,000 persons on board, left her dock at the foot of Vesey street at 11 o'clock this morning, and started on her maiden trip across the Atlantic. The opportunity of seeing the first American built trans-Atlantic liner in twenty years leave on her first long voyage, drew many hundreds of spectators to the river front. Long before the hour of sailing the crowd thronged over the great vessel, crowded the saloons, cabins and decks, inspecting every possible nook and cranny of the splendid craft.

Every berth on the vessel was taken for the voyage. There were about 300 persons in the first cabin, 200 in the second cabin and 500 in the steerage.

While many of the persons on the dock and vessel were simply sight-seers, a greater number than usually attend a sailing came for the more serious business of bidding adieu to friends.

The cabins were filled with flowers sent to the voyagers.

At 10:45 o'clock when all persons but the passengers were ordered ashore the dock was packed with sightseers. The streets outside the shed were filled, and the neighboring piles were also occupied.

Two tugs fastened on to the stem of the ship. The gangplanks were raised, and at 11 o'clock the vessel moved backward into the stream.

A cheer rose from the throng on the dock. The river craft whistled long and loud.

The big ship swung out to midstream then the tide carried her bow around toward the sea, the tugs cast loose and she was off on her first voyage.

Captain Randall was seen before the ship sailed. He has commanded the majority of the American line's vessels on their first voyages. He said that he would take her over the southern route to Southampton, and would not speed her, as he desired to get the machinery broken in. He expected to make the trip in about six and a half days.

The passenger list contained the names of many prominent persons, among them Sir Julian Pauncefote and family, Mr. and Mrs. Henry E. Abbey, Mr. and Mrs. John Drew, Mrs. Rojane, Frederick T. Frelinghuysen and Count Wickenburg.

Methodist Ministers' Meeting.

The monthly meeting of the Methodist ministers for June will be held this afternoon at the parsonage of the West Haven Methodist church. The annual election of officers will be held at this meeting. Rev. Dr. Prince, pastor of Trinity St. E. church, New Haven, will deliver a sermon, and Rev. H. F. Kidder, pastor of the M. E. church at Shelton, Conn., will read a paper on "Egypt."

New Haven Gun Club.

Next Wednesday afternoon the New Haven Gun club will hold their monthly shoot, after which the cash prizes donated by the club will be awarded. During the afternoon there will be a team shoot, sides being chosen from all members present. Each member of the winning team will receive a useful if not a very valuable prize. The team race will consist of twenty targets per man. Shooting at 2 o'clock.

The ceremony will be performed by the Rev. William M. Grosvenor, D. D., rector of the church, and the Rev. John Hall, D. D., of the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian church.

The best man will be Mr. Frederick Winthrop of New York, and the ushers will be Mr. Thomas Nelson Perkins, Mr. Louis Adams Frothingham, Mr. Rufus K. Thomas, Mr. George Baby Blake of Boston, Mr. G. Richmond Fearing, Jr., and Mr. C. C. Baldwin, Jr., of New York. The bridesmaids will be Miss Emily Sloane, Miss Lila Sloane, Miss Gertrude Vanderbilt and Miss Beatrice Bend.
